- June 1. 30. Certificate of the corn shipped at the port of (Dover) from April 19 to June the first.
- June 2. 31. Commissioners of Musters for Worcestershire to the Earls
Kidderminster. of Warwick and Leicester and Sir Chr. Hatton. Desiring that the rate at which Edmund Colles was charged might be abated, "being over burdenous for his estate and abilitie."
- June 5. 32. William Lytlestone to Lord Burghley. Sends information
Barnstaple. of great preparations in Spain, intended for Ireland.
- June 6. 33. Lord Chief Baron Roger Manwood to Walsyngham. Pro-
Serjeants' Inn. ceedings in the suit between Mr. Woodroffe and M. Benalio, relative to the purchase of certain wool. Justifies the course he has taken in that suit.
- June 6? 34. A note concerning the truth of the matter between Robert Woodroff and Jerome Benalio, about a contract and bargain for wools: together with a true declaration of a very covenous practice between Benalio and Humfrey Mercer, whereby Benalio would have beguiled Woodroff of his wools.
- June 8. 35. Tho. Lord Wentworth to Lord Burghley. Acknowledges his Mile End. honourable, friendly, and courteous letter, in answer to the proposal for a marriage between his son and Burghley's daughter. Rejoices that his son has made so honourable a choice, and that in this wanton time he was not wantonly disposed. Incloses,
35. i. Articles to be considered by Lord Wentworth as to the terms on which the proposed marriage should be concerted; with Lord Wentworth's answers to the same, and Burghley's calculations thereon.
- June 10. 36. Dr. Robert Bellamy, Vice-dean, to Walsyngham. Discusses
Durham. the question whether the benefit of the deanery for the half year ought to be paid to the assigns and executors of the late Dean, [Dr. Wyllson?]. Opposition of Mr. Ralph Leaver: Mrs. Whittingham has, since the Dean's death, thrust herself into possession, under colour of a pretended lease.
- June 11. 37. William Overton, Bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, to London. Walsyngham. Has only been able to collect half of the money levied upon the clergy of his diocese for the furnishing of light horses. Has the stubbornest diocese in all this land, and a clergy the most unwilling to show themselves ready and dutiful in any good service, specially if it touch their purse. Opposition of Mr. Sale, who glorifies himself in the favor he found at Court.
- June 12. 38. Sir Tho. Bromley, Lord Chancellor, and the Earl of Leicester to
The Court. the Students of Christ's Church, Oxford. Directing them to show all due respect and obedience to the orders of the Dean and Chapter, till they could procure new statutes from Her Majesty, their foundress.
