

CLV.

1582.

- Oct. 11. 73. Answer of Sir H. Cromwell to Sir Henry Darcy's complaint. Insulting return of the Council's letter by Darcy, imputing to Cromwell in effect, "not only to be a liar, but a falsifier of the Council's letters."
- Oct. [11.] 74. Sir Henry Darcy's private notes for answer to such objections as Sir Hen. Cromwell may bring against him, relative to the execution of his duty in the commission of the Peace. Arbitrary conduct of Sir H. Cromwell.
- Oct. 12. 75. Sir Tho. Copley to Walsyngham. Has remained almost three years in France patiently expecting some mercy from home; but now he is of very necessity driven to take another course. He leaves his wife and family at Rouen. Never heard the report that Walsyngham sought to procure the killing of Dr. Allen. He still hopes to be restored to Her Majesty's favor.
Rouen.
- Oct. 13. 76. Sir Ed. Trafforde and Robert Worsley to the Council. Certify the state of the recusants in the gaol of Salford. Enumerates the names of those who continue in their former obstinate opinions. Want of a preacher.
Salford.
- Oct. 22. 77. Sir Amyas Poulet to Walsyngham. Has left Somerset for the winter on account of his health, but the sickness being in London, he shall return to the country, to his house at Sampford Peverell in Devon. Desires him to favor his suit for a lease of the church of Bristol and for the patronage of the benefice of Sampford Peverell. Incloses,
77. I. State of the case of the advowson of Sampford Peverell, and of the parsonage of South Petherton.
- Oct. 22. 78. General orders agreed upon by the Justices of Peace at Winchester, relative to the management of the House of Correction.
- Oct. 23. 79. Charles Paget to Walsyngham. Intends going to Rouen for his health, and to drink English beer. Professes dutiful allegiance to Her Majesty, and readiness to be employed in any service; matter of conscience in religion only excepted.
Paris.
- Oct. 25. 80. John Johnson to same. His opinion that it will be more profitable to continue the generality of the staple than the trade of transporting cloths. Incloses,
London.
80. I. A plan for the employment of the French refugees in the manufacture of cloth and the erection of a staple for wool in London.
- Oct. 28. 81. Conditions offered by the Earl of Huntingdon for the settlement of the controversy between him and Lord Montjoy.
- Oct. 82. Turner's journal of a voyage from England to Venice by way of the Rhine and Upper Germany; with notes on the churches, remarkable adventures, and expenses, &c., on the route.
